ENTERTAINING NEW FICTION

THIS FREEDOM

By A. S. M. HUTCHINSON

Frederic Taber Cooper in The New York Herald says: "The sheer craftsmanship of 'This Freedom,' the rich and varied artistry of its development, lift the author forthwith from the class of interesting contemporary novelists into the foremost rank of English fiction." 185th Thousand. $2.00

THE SKY LINE OF SPRUCE

By EDISON MARSHALL

The New York Times says: "There is no lack of thrilling episodes. A wild canoe ride down the rapids of the Yuga River, a titanic battle with a huge grizzly, and other fights with even more savage human enemies, these, together with the remarkable exploits of Fenris, the wolf, cannot fail to make the reader's pulse beat faster." Second Printing. $1.75

THE HEART OF LITTLE SHIKARA, AND OTHER STORIES

By EDISON MARSHALL

A collection of stories of the out-of-doors and of animal life, by Mr. Marshall, including "The Heart of Little Shikara," which was awarded the O. Henry Memorial Prize by the Society of Arts and Sciences for the best short story of 1921. $1.90

GRANITE AND CLAY

By SARA WARE BASSETT

The Boston Herald says: "'Granite and Clay' is more than a readable and wholesome story of Cape Cod and Boston. It is a novel of real merit and substance . . . the best work that Miss Bassett has done." $1.90

PEREGRINE'S PROGRESS

By JEFFERY FARNOL

Do you remember Jeffery Farnol's most popular novel, "The Broad Highway"? At last Mr. Farnol has written another story of the same period and scenes, in which you will meet again the Tinker and other well-remembered characters. "Peregrine's Progress" is just such another delightful romance of wayside adventure, with a heroine quite as captivating as the Charmian of "The Broad Highway." An immediate success—Second Large Printing Already. $2.00

THE EVIL SHEPHERD

By E. PHILLIPS OPPENHEIM

Contains the same elements of mystery and suspense that made "The Great Impersonation" so popular. Edwin Francis Edgett in The Boston Transcript says: "The reader who fails to be pleased by 'The Evil Shepherd' must be difficult to satisfy." $2.00

THE BREATH OF SCANDAL

By EDWIN BALMER

The New York Evening Post says: "Mr. Balmer has produced in this novel one of the best built and most dramatically efficient stories among the season's output. . . . The book is one that will repay careful reading, and may especially be recommended to intelligent American women." $1.90

THE CLASH

By STORM JAMESON

The Boston Transcript says: "Miss Jameson's novel will take a distinct place among the storm petrels of this season's literature. Readers will delight in it or quarrel with it. They will not be indifferent to it." 1.90

SKIPPY BEDELLE

By OWEN JOHNSON

The joyous story of a sixteen-year-old Lawrenceville schoolboy, his first contacts with the baffling fair sex, his attainment of wisdom through the comic-tragedies of adolescence, his sentimental progress from the urchin to the complete man of the world. (Ready October 21.) $1.75

THE MAN WHO LIVED IN A SHOE

By HENRY JAMES FORMAN

The Philadelphia Public Ledger says: "There is a flavor of William J. Locke in this new novel by Henry James Forman, something of his method, his quiet, whimsical manner, his scholarly style. Mr. Forman is to be congratulated upon the atmosphere of charm with which he has filled the pages of his new novel. It is indeed a story that will make a multitude of friends." Second Printing. $1.90

THE TRAIL OF THE WHITE MULE

By B. M. BOWER

The New York Times says: "That same Casey Ryan who in B. M. Bower's last novel carried the reader, chuckling joyously, with him round about Nevada's deserts and mountains in a Ford is again the central figure in this new novel. . . . The author produces in Casey Ryan a real fictional creation, a unique character that is a worth while addition to our gallery of Western portraits in fiction." $1.75

More extended announcements of A. S. M. Hutchinson's THIS FREEDOM and Owen Johnson's SKIPPY BEDELLE will be found in the following pages.

IMPORTANT BIOGRAPHIES

ENRICO CARUSO By PIERRE V. R. KEY

in collaboration with Bruno Zirato

This life-story of the world-famous tenor contains an accurate record of his truly amazing career, his foibles and his excellences. It has been authorized and endorsed by Mrs. Caruso; and Bruno Zirato, Caruso's secretary, has collaborated with Mr. Key. Illustrated. $5.00

THE REAL TSARITSA

By MADAME LILI DEHN

This revelation at first hand of the whole tragedy of the Empress of Russia, as a wife and as a mother, and all that led to the downfall of a great dynasty, makes a profoundly human appeal. The London Morning Post calls it "Historical evidence of the first importance." Illustrated. $3.50

THE PUPPET SHOW OF MEMORY:

A Book of Recollections

By MAURICE BARING

A book of recollections by an English journalist and critic. Mr. Baring writes charmingly and his book abounds in anecdotes. The Boston Transcript says: "The enthusiastic public response with which this entirely delightful volume of memories has been greeted is an object lesson to those who expect works of this kind, if written with especial finesse, to become 'caviare to the general.' A London critic has told his public that if our civilization were to go down, posterity might reconstruct our 'highest complexities and reinements' from 'The Puppet Show of Memory.' This is a remarkably sweeping statement, and yet we do not know where there is a book that so nearly deserves this praise." Fourth Printing. $5.00

THE LOG-CABIN LADY

AN ANONYMOUS AUTOBIOGRAPHY

The autobiography of an American girl, born in a log cabin in the Northwest, who is to-day known on two continents as a distinguished woman. This is a rare document, and it will be an inspiration and help to those who read it. Illustrated. (Ready November 11) $1.50

DAVID LUBIN: A Study in Practical Idealism By OLIVIA ROSSETTI AGRESTI

The story of David Lubin's remarkable rise from a poor emigrant boy to world leadership in the field of international co-operation is set forth by Signora Agresti in the pages of this inspiring biography. "One of the distinctive great men of his age," says William Roscoe Thayer. (Ready November 11) $3.50

NEW BOOKS OF GENERAL INTEREST

THE CHARM OF THE MIDDLE KINGDOM

By JAMES REID MARSH

This delightful gift book is packed full of intimate glimpses of Chinese life,—of its homes and gardens, its customs, its charm of scenery, its beautiful, elusive women, and its romance. Mr. Marsh has penetrated into the real China, and conveys the real spirit of these millions of little understood people. With numerous illustrations. $3.00

THE NEW AIR WORLD: The Science of Meteorology Simplified

By WILLIS LUTHER MOORE, Sc.D., LL.D.

The author, a professor of meteorology at George Washington University, who was for eighteen years chief of the weather bureau at Washington, tells in plain language how to forecast the weather. His book will enable any intelligent person to become weather-wise. With numerous charts and illustrations. (Ready November 11) $3.00

REPRESENTATIVE ONE-ACT PLAYS BY CONTINENTAL AUTHORS

Selected, with biographical notes,

By MONTROSE J. MOSES

This is a companion volume to Mayorga's "Representative One-Act Plays by American Authors," and Clark's "Representative One-Act Plays by British and Irish Authors." Mr. Moses has been careful to select the best examples of the one-act form written in Belgium, France, Germany, Austria, Russia, Italy and Spain. (Ready November 11) $3.00

A TREASURY OF PLAYS FOR WOMEN

Edited by FRANK SHAY

A volume of plays requiring only women to cast, or in which the male characters were originated by and can be safely handled by women. There are included plays by the following dramatists: Edna St. Vincent Millay, Alice Gerstenberg, Colin Clements, Eugene Pillot, Alfred Kreymborg, August Strindberg and Maurice Maeterlinck. $3.00

THE FUN OF BEING A FAT MAN

By WILLIAM JOHNSTON

"It is about time that a fat man should tell the truth about the joys of being fat," says William Johnston, and he has given us a little masterpiece of humor that should rank with Irvin Cobb's "Speaking of Operations." Mr. Johnston's "How to Get Fat" rules and Herb Roth's cartoons will bring joy to many readers. 75 cents

1492

By MARY JOHNSTON

This is history so deftly handled that it reads like romance, and romance so skilfully superimposed on history that the line of division cannot be discovered. "1492" will stand as a wonderful picture of Columbus, a splendid tribute to his great achievement, and a colorful description of the life of the time, both in Spain and in America. (Ready November 11) $2.50

BOOKS FOR CHILDREN

LITTLE WOMEN: or Meg, Jo, Beth and Amy

By LOUISA M. ALCOTT

This new popular illustrated edition, with new type, good margins and eight beautiful colored illustrations by Jessie Willcox Smith, is the most attractive ever published. $1.50
